Sketch

A hand-drawn sketch of a geological feature, possibly a cross-section or a map. The sketch is enclosed in a rectangular frame. A large, irregular shape is drawn in the upper right quadrant. Inside this shape, there is a smaller, roughly circular area labeled (5073). Above this area, the label (5070) is written. To the right of the main shape, the label (5071) is written. A vertical line runs along the right side of the sketch. A horizontal line runs along the top. A small arrow points upwards from the bottom left corner, labeled Scale:.
