Sketch

A hand-drawn sketch of a geological structure, possibly a cross-section of a rock mass. The sketch shows a large, roughly circular or oval shape on the left, and a smaller, more elongated shape to its right. The larger shape is labeled with the number 5082 in brackets. The smaller shape is labeled with the number 5095 in brackets. A small arrow points to the boundary between the two shapes, labeled with the number 5083 in brackets. A vertical line on the far left is labeled with an upward-pointing arrow. The word "Scale:" is written at the bottom left.
